BROWNS LOSE TO YANKS IN NINTH INNING

After Holding Lead Through Game, Browns Permit New York to Win in Last

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—After holding a lead on the New York Americans the Browns permitted the visitors to come from behind in the last inning and take today's game 3 to 2, thus increasing New York's lead to one and one-half games. The Browns' four errors figured in the visitors three runs.

Up to the last inning the contest was a pitcher's battle with Davis of the Browns getting the best of his duel with Bush. He weakened, however, in the ninth and the visitors took advantage of two hits and an error and scored the tying and winning runs.

The Browns scored the first run in the fifth inning on Jacobson's double. McManus' single and Severid's sacrifice fly and added another in the seventh on Williams double Jacobson's sacrifice and McManus' double.

The visitors made their first run in the eighth inning, when Dugan, who had doubled, raced home as McManus threw over Sisler's head on Pipp's infield single. The tying and winning tallies came in the last inning. Schang reached first base on an infield hit and went to second on a passed ball. Smith was sent in to bat for Ward, but was removed in favor of McNally when Pruett relieved Davis, McNally attempting to sacrifice went to first as Severid threw low to catch Schang at the plate. Witt's single brought in McNally and Scott. Dugan hit into a double play, ending the rally.

By taking today's game the visitors also took the series having won the first game Saturday. The Browns only victory of this crucial series was due to Pruett's great pitching in Sunday's game. Having lost today's game the Browns are now conceded but little chance to win the pennant. Sports writers agreed that this series would decide the pennant winner of the American league.

Sisler, the Browns first baseman, broke his string of hitting in consecutive games after getting at least one hit in forty-one successive games, thus establishing a new modern major league record.

The previous modern record was made by Ty Cobb when he hit safely in forty consecutive contests in 1911.

The series between the Yankees and Browns, referred to as a "little world's series" drew a capacity crowd. At all three games the spectators were admitted to the playing field and ground rules were enforced. It has been estimated by the Browns management that at least $5,000 attended the three games.

Although the Browns are scheduled to meet the weaker teams of the league while the leaders will play Detroit and Cleveland it is believed unlikely by followers of the national pastime that the Yankees will lose their lead of one and one-half games.
